

Reading Questions- AF3

Deduce, infer or interpret information, events or ideas from texts.

- Do you remember when/how/who....? How does this affect the story now?
- Look at the text and find.... Do you think...? Find examples to support your point of view?
- Why was he/she doing/ thinking/saying etc..?
- How do you know?
- How can you tell from their speech/actions...?
- What does that suggest about...?
- Look at the text. You've identified several problems.....? Which one do you think is the most difficult to solve? Can you work out? What do you think? How do you know this?
- Can you find this in evidence from the text?
- Put these events in the correct order
- Finish the story /predict the next part
- Why do you think the character behaved in that way?
- How do you know...?
- 'What dangers made the helmsman turn back?'
- Find two examples to support your view
- Some people think... what do you think?
- What does the character's behaviour / speech tell you about how they feel?
- Is this a suitable title for the book? Why?
- What does that suggest about peoples' attitudes?